

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Dr. Jonathan Jantz, Pine Ridge, has demonstrated his commitment to high quality health care for all South Dakotans regardless of their race, income, geographical location or cultural background; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Jantz has been a pediatrician at the Indian Health Services Hospital at Pine Ridge since 1983; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Jantz has been instrumental in the establishment of a WIC clinic at Pine Ridge to provide nutrition education and supplemental foods to women, infants and children on the reservation, as well as family planning services; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Jantz was also instrumental in establishing the Maternal Perinatal and Infant Mortality Review Committee for the Aberdeen Area Indian Health Service in response to the high rate of SIDS deaths on the reservation; and,

WHEREAS, His efforts to reduce infant mortality and morbidity and improve the health status of the residents on the Pine Ridge reservation have been on-going; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Jantz is leaving Pine Ridge to enter private practice in Liberal, Kansas:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 11, 1989, as in South Dakota in recognition of his efforts to improve the health of South Dakotans, particularly those on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Second Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
